

Socializing Corporate Sustainability Workshops

Harness Your Employee's Love of Company and Brand to Amplify Your Sustainability Initiatives and Goals

EMPLOYEES ARE A COMPANY'S MOST PASSIONATE AND LOYAL BRAND AMBASSADORS

Do your employees know the extent of the sustainability measures your company has implemented? Have you taken the time to socialize the sustainability work that has been prioritized; the progress made; successes achieved; and the challenges that remain to be overcome?

EMPLOYEES WANT TO WORK FOR SUSTAINABLY-MINDED, ETHICAL COMPANIES

Communicate your organization's sustainability initiatives. Engage your employees in sustainability roadmapping. Empower your workforce to meaningfully and impactfully support sustainable change throughout your organization.

EMPLOYEES ARE YOUR COMPANY'S MOST IMPORTANT STAKEHOLDER

TripleWin Advisory offers thoughtfully-crafted, highly interactive corporate sustainability workshops designed to impart foundational knowledge to employees on the importance and value of sustainability within organizations. TripleWin's corporate sustainability workshops are designed to disseminate information to workforces on sustainability measures currently being pursued and to educate employees on broader sustainability and business circularity concepts that can be deployed to affect deep, meaningful change. The goal of these corporate sustainability workshops is two-fold:

- 1) To effectively disseminate and amplify the 'good sustainability works' a company is currently pursuing, and
- 2) To mobilize departments and groups of individuals to ideate on how they can further support/amplify/embed existing corporate sustainability initiatives into their work streams and processes.
